Power Shifts and Global Governance: Challenges from South and North

Edited by Ashwani Kumar and Dirk Messner, with a Foreword by Günther Taube

'This book goes beyond simple claims that globalization is about westernizing the world to show how countries that have not been international powerhouses nonetheless are able to use globalization to define a larger international role for themselves.' —Robert Henry Cox, Professor, School of International and Area Studies at the University of Oklahoma, and co-editor of the journal Governance.

Explores changing architectures of global governance in the midst of great power shifts in the twenty-first century.
