Series: Anthem Studies in Latin American Literature and Culture

Cross-cultural work combining studies and including new research on social and cultural relations between Japan and Latin America.

Cross-cultural work combining Latin American and Japanese studies. An intellectual, artistic and social journey through Japan, Latin America and Europe, brought by experienced researchers who have conducted studies, projects and research all over the globe and have worked in multicultural and multilinguistic environments.

Transpacific Connections: Literary and Cultural Production by and about Latin American Nikkeijin is a cross-cultural work combining Latin American and Japanese studies. It contains original research on social and cultural relations between Japan and Latin America, ranging from Japanese inspirations in one of the Mexican most renowned poets, Brazilian dekasegi (temporary workers in Japan) described in a variety of testimonials, Japanese community in Brazil and its literary production, and a Mexican telenovela, inspired by the Japanese culture to European inspirations in a Nikkei Peruvian writer, Augusto Hiro Oshiro.

Contents

Nora Juurmaa, "The "Japanese community" in Brazil and its literary production: the functioning of "death" in Matsui Tarô's literary fiction; Ignacio López-Calvo, Contested Modernities: Representations of the Brazilian Dekasegi and the Nipponization of Brazil in Nikkei cultural production; Barbara Mauthes, When Gustave Flaubert meets Ryūnosuke Akutagawa: "Corazón sencillo" by Augusto Higa Oshiro. The short story of a Peruvian Nikkei writer; Luyue Wang, Japanese Prints in Tablada's Writings: Cultural and Media Transposition in "El poema de Okusai"; Maja Zawierzeniec, The telenovela Oyuki's sin (El pecado de Oyuki): las realidades del otro or Mexico through a Japanised lens.
