Explores the pervasive use of smartphones as an everyday reality for intimacy, entrepreneurship and care for East Asian migrants, advocating the necessity of understanding how they live their lives both online and offline.

This volume looks at the role of digital media platforms in shaping migrants' practices of connectivity and mobility. Focusing on migration within and beyond East Asia, it explores the pervasive use of smartphones as an everyday reality for intimacy, entrepreneurship, and care for East Asian migrants, advocating the necessity of understanding how they live their lives both online and offline.
