Aunique, multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary contribution that critically examines histories of esotericism, mysticism and occultism in modern Asia, paving eventually the way for the so-called 'New Age'

In this seminal edited collection, scholars from different fields critically examine histories of esotericism, mysticism and occultism in modern Asia, understood here as the period roughly stretching from the late nineteenth through the twentieth century, paving eventually the way for the so-called 'New Age'.

Readership

This edited collection will be invaluable for postgraduate students, research scholars and academics working in the fields of religion, culture, esoteric and occult traditions in modern Asia, and indeed the modern world.
