Readership

This book is aimed at the educated reader. It should also be useful for philosophical counselors as well as marriage and family counselors and social workers. It incorporates a strength-based model and systems theory, both of which are the main approaches used in marriage and family counseling and social work practice.

About the Author(s) / Editor(s)

Elliot D. Cohen, PhD (Brown University) is an author, philosophical counselor, Fulbright scholar, and professor at Florida State University College of Medicine. He is a principal founder of philosophical counseling in the United States and lectures worldwide in the field.
