Exclusive: WORLD

Born out of the University of Oregon's "Extra!! Don't Kill the Messenger: Migrating to Stay Alive" international symposium on journalism-in-exile, this volume brings together the presentations, conversations, and reflections of writers, reporters, and scholars who have faced dangers and threats to their personal safety because of their journalistic work.

Readership

The general public is the audience along with academics and professionals seeking to experience and understand the current climate of attacks on journalists.

Key selling points

- Posits that attacks on journalists are attacks on all
- Reveals that killing journalists destroys the rights to know
- Narrates inspirational stories of journalists who live to report the news
- Portrays journalists as heroes
