Offers seven insightful lenses for understanding deep accountability in complex human ecosystems, emphasising creativity, transformation and interconnectedness in the face of systemic breakdowns

Moving towards, not away from, the vexing array of discouraging crises of our time and drawing on a number of innovative but congruent concepts, this short book offers to focus our path towards deep accountability for the life of complex human ecosystems.

Key selling points

A transdisciplinary approach that blends widely dispersed but congruent disciplines for the thinking tough enough to guide hard choices

Holds the highest level intellectual insights in tension with direct experience on the ground where crises and hopeful paths forward are real

Like the compound eye of the brilliant honeybees, embracing our distinctive human complexity, the book calls us to see and work with many things all at once – effectively.

Rich intellectually and informed by no-nonsense faith to power ‘the choices that lead to life’ as Jimmy Carter asked
