Provides a historical analysis of the administrations of Churchill and Eden, focusing on the broad international context of decolonized Indo-China.

'[A]s much a study of the internal policymaking operations of the Foreign Office as a study of Churchill and Eden. [...] Nong provides good coverage of the large cast of characters in this story.' -Christopher H. Sterling, 'Finest Hour: The Journal of Winston Churchill'

'Churchill, Eden and Indo-China, 1951-1955' offers a systematic approach to pertinent international politics, providing a historiography and assessing the impact of events such as the Cold War and the Second World War within the context of the governments of Churchill and Eden. Revisiting Churchill's wartime helmsmanship in order to shed further light on his post-war administration, Nông Dân provides a greater historical awareness of the broad international context of decolonized Indo-China and South East Asia.
